

PLYMOUTH PARAGRAPHS

"Aunt" Fanny Clark is quite ill.

W. G. Hall has lately been here.

Puerperal fever is quite prevalent about here.

Call at Burrows' for Bogarting. The Ware.

The Town Stock society will soon hold an entertainment.

Miss L. E. Peppell of Thornton has lately been visiting here.

J. G. Wilkinson is working in a th shop in Newburyport.

Mr. Vice Rogers of Oxford has been here lately.

Miss Ruth Hall has returned to her town of Boston.

The Hall road school had a brief Easter vacation.

Dr. O. English now a Nebraska railroad conductor has been here.

G. R. Cleary's house has been occupied by W. H. Clegg.

G. E. Elmendorf has moved from the 1st to J. M. Merrill's house.

Under H. Longer family sold and home bodily.

W. H. Sage Surgeon has been working at R. F. Scudder's.

Editor Parker of Lawrence was recently here.

H. A. White has become conductor on the P. V. R. R.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hayward have been to Boston and vicinity.

Miss U. F. Adams has soon more light on the route of Hodge's road.

Will Page Law returned from several years stay in California.

Small freight train between the P. V. R. R. occasionally stops.

John Marion has returned from a stop of several weeks near West Glover, Vt. The first regular freight train over the P. V. R. R. was run last Saturday.

The old Fellow's Lodge here a double party at the university of the - district April 25.

B. M. Brown is to return to Plymouth after his engagement terminates here April 25.

The work of building of the parsonage of the home house has gone well.

Maurice Condon gives public notice that he will lead his railroad excursion May 10.

Highways Canadian Friends are passing south through here on their way daily.

C. J. Gould's house recently made away from the Penitentiary House but no harm was done.

Some of our Old Fellow's propose visiting Concord, April 27th where there will be a grand gathering.

A portion of the railroad storm damage of the Penitentiary House has been removed.

Workers have been engaged a portion of the work finishing of the exterior of J. N. Tully's new corner store.

People have made their appearance to the angles on upper Main street, most of which live in the stone bank wall.

A general statement of the Methodists for the past year will be given in case the weather is favorable.

Old Cox recently narrowly escaped serious injury by a sudden stroke of snow and ice from the roof of Mason & Weeks' hotel.

The local donations at Trinity church last Sunday were very fine and the services most excellent.

The writer on Moon, Weeks & Co's telegram was broken by a snow slide Tuesday.

The house formerly occupied by M. A. Ferris in the rear of Hodge's store has been repaired.

Rev. Joseph Shober of Manchester preached at the Unitarian church last Sunday.

The University Aid Society will meet with Mrs. A. J. McCloskey Tuesday evening.

Mrs. W. M. Fessenden & Co. have received several new show cases and numerous new spring goods are in the way.

Fred Stearns of Westworth, railroad telegraph operator has lately been here, being mostly recovered from his long and severe illness.

M. W. Hollingshead has been appointed chaplain of Plymouth one of the stipendiaries in the state of C. J. Gould & L. S. S.

E. E. Smith's slighly was lately somewhat caused by being struck by a stone on his head, was fastened there.

Meeting of the Penitentiary Royal Arch Chapter was Wednesday night. A full attendance is requested.

M. H. Colver will deliver his lecture, "The Art of War," before the Y. M. C. A. on Tuesday evening, April 16.

Don't fail to call at L. M. Tully's and see the new "Loring" dresses and all if you are in want of spring head gear.

Mr. Shober's subject tomorrow will be the "Rich Man and Lazarus," which will begin a course of sermons on the parable.

It is announced that General Manager Dodge, who has been stopping in south-western states the past few months for his health, has resigned and bought a $10,000 estate near Los Angeles.

Fast day salaried services at the Methodist church next Thursday forenoon at 11 o'clock. Rev. D. C. Kossler will preach on Divine. Rev. Mr. Peck was expected to have occupied the time, but his throat will not admit of it.

A pig was lately killed by a train and being wrapped up in a sheet and brought here a powdered corpse by means of the railroad car, it made something of a scandal.

W. L. Sherman has recently patented some little sketches on glass, part of one being on one side and the remainder on the other, so as to render the operation more effective.

In these days of low interest, an opportunity to get 2 or 3 per cent on an investment is not often seen. There's a chance to invest at the Penitentiary bank here. Read the ad elsewhere and see if it is not so.

Prof. Hildreth, formerly of the Hildreths school is soon to visit here.

Rev. Mr. Peck hopes to be able to preach in Boston but if not, there will be no services at the Congregational church.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Gould desire to express their hearty thanks to the Odd Fellows for the flowers of their little daughter, and also to thank the members of the Boston Lodge for their sympathy and assistance.

The dancer last night was quite well received by spectators. When a person pays 50 cents for the privilege of dancing and then is called away before he has danced at all, he should have his money back. We notice that this association does not do that, for they keep the cash.

J. J. Lane of Leominster, N. H., manager of the Boston Daily Star has been here several times recently and the paper which is sold here early in the morning at only one cent each is already getting quite a circulation. He is also putting on a directory of the hotels, etc. of the state in which advertisements are inserted.

Before Justice Raymond this morning Charles Blodell, for damages was fined $50 and costs $16. He was at the regular French Fry standances in the Town Hall last night, and was attempting to go off tall down near off of Adams who promptly took notice of his bad pocket which he said he left. Another party was also drunk and had a fight with one of the men in front of his place of residence, and the former was thrown down and trampled upon considerably his heels biting a young boy in the head and nearly knocking him down, but he was not arrested. Blodell was put in the lobby but subsequently released.

A short time since some of the through trains from Montreal were unable to run for several days as the snow blockade on the South Eastern railroad was so bad.

District No. 5 held its annual school meeting Saturday evening, March 24. J. S. Nutting was chosen moderator, Noah Nutting, clerk, and Mrs. Adrie M. Clay, prudential committee.

A young man named Cook from Cambridge arrived Saturday in a dilapidated condition saying he was bound for N. Y. City to get a flying machine. At his account he was in Brattleboro.

At their dance was held in the Town Hall on Friday evening of last week. There was a large attendance and a lively time resulted. The receipts easily equalled the expenditures, but they were made up by contributions. Gordon Wells and Frank Finch played the violin to the people.

The railroad trains are generally quite dry, all the snow having melted away except on the roads, except on the P. V. R. R. occasionally a small piece of sidewalk which had been directly showered with water appears in view, but otherwise the walking is wet, dirty, crumbling sand and snow.

There was a huge double snow slide from the western side of the roof of Father's big black Freight wagon which rebounded from the smaller building in which his store is located. It was heard a song at the time of the slide, and the windows were shattered.

It was frequently necessary to make frequent stops to remove snow from the roof of the wagon.

P. H. Crawford is building a wooden locomotive house at North Woodstock at the end of the P. V. R. R. It will have two engines. A turntable is now in operation while preparations are being made for the engine.

A spring of water has been struck eight feet below the surface, the water being seven feet above the level of the neighboring river. It seems to be an invincible spring. It will be pumped into a tank for use by a small stationary steam engine.

The post office was closed from 2 to 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon on account of the arrival of the late Postmaster.

Highways Canadian Friends are passing south through here on their way daily.

C. J. Gould's house recently made away from the Penitentiary House but no harm was done.

Some of our Old Fellow's propose visiting Concord, April 27th where there will be a grand gathering.

A portion of the railroad storm damage of the Penitentiary House has been removed.

Workers have been engaged a portion of the work finishing of the exterior of J. N. Tully's new corner store.

People have made their appearance to the angles on upper Main street, most of which live in the stone bank wall.

A general statement of the Methodists for the past year will be given in case the weather is favorable.

Old Cox recently narrowly escaped serious injury by a sudden stroke of snow and ice from the roof of Mason & Weeks' hotel.

The local donations at Trinity church last Sunday were very fine and the services most excellent.

The writer on Moon, Weeks & Co's telegram was broken by a snow slide Tuesday.

The house formerly occupied by M. A. Ferris in the rear of Hodge's store has been repaired.

Rev. Joseph Shober of Manchester preached at the Unitarian church last Sunday.

The University Aid Society will meet with Mrs. A. J. McCloskey Tuesday evening.

Mrs. W. M. Fessenden & Co. have received several new show cases and numerous new spring goods are in the way.

Fred Stearns of Westworth, railroad telegraph operator has lately been here, being mostly recovered from his long and severe illness.

M. W. Hollingshead has been appointed chaplain of Plymouth one of the stipendiaries in the state of C. J. Gould & L. S. S.

E. E. Smith's slighly was lately somewhat caused by being struck by a stone on his head, was fastened there.

Meeting of the Penitentiary Royal

Arch Chapter was Wednesday night. Rev. Mr. Peck will deliver his lecture, "The Art of War," before the Y. M. C. A. on Tuesday evening, April 16.

Leve & Alden's Special Round Trip Tickets in California! Going via New Orleans, San Antonio, El Paso, Tucson, Arizona, Los Angeles and Merced, to San Francisco. Returning via Sacramento, San Fran, San Jose, the grand scenic route of America, to Salt Lake City, Ogallala, and the mountains of Colorado, to Denver, Cheyenne, and the great plains of the West.

For a few dollars more than the price of a round trip ticket you can travel in style.

Forces, minks, raccoons are determined to deprive us of our food.

Food, drink, and tobacco are the chief articles of commerce.

Forces, minks, raccoons are determined to deprive us of our food.

Food, drink, and tobacco are the chief articles of commerce.

Forces, minks, raccoons are determined to deprive us of our food.

Food, drink, and tobacco are the chief articles of commerce.

Forces, minks, raccoons are determined to deprive us of our food.

Food, drink, and tobacco are the chief articles of commerce.

Forces, minks, raccoons are determined to deprive us of our food.

Food, drink, and tobacco are the chief articles of commerce.

Forces, minks, raccoons are determined to deprive us of our food.

Food, drink, and tobacco are the chief articles of commerce.

Forces, minks, raccoons are determined to deprive us of our food.

Food, drink, and tobacco are the chief articles of commerce.

Forces, minks, raccoons are determined to deprive us of our food.

Food, drink, and tobacco are the chief articles of commerce.

Forces, minks, raccoons are determined to deprive us of our food.

Food, drink, and tobacco are the chief articles of commerce.

Forces, minks, raccoons are determined to deprive us of our food.

Food, drink, and tobacco are the chief articles of commerce.

Forces, minks, raccoons are determined to deprive us of our food.

Food, drink, and tobacco are the chief articles of commerce.

Forces, minks, raccoons are determined to deprive us of our food.

Food, drink, and tobacco are the chief articles of commerce.

Forces, minks, raccoons are determined to deprive us of our food.

Food, drink, and tobacco are the chief articles of commerce.

Forces, minks, raccoons are determined to deprive us of our food.

Food, drink, and tobacco are the chief articles of commerce.

Forces, minks, raccoons are determined to deprive us of our food.

Food, drink, and tobacco are the chief articles of commerce.

Forces, minks, raccoons are determined to deprive us of our food.

Food, drink, and tobacco are the chief articles of commerce.

Forces, minks, raccoons are determined to deprive us of our food.

Food, drink, and tobacco are the chief articles of commerce.

Forces, minks, raccoons are determined to deprive us of our food.

Food, drink, and tobacco are the chief articles of commerce.

Forces, minks, raccoons are determined to deprive us of our food.

Food, drink, and tobacco are the chief articles of commerce.

Forces, minks, raccoons are determined to deprive us of our food.

Food, drink, and tobacco are the chief articles of commerce.

Forces, minks, raccoons are determined to deprive us of our food.

Food, drink, and tobacco are the chief articles of commerce.

Forces, minks, raccoons are determined to deprive us of our food.

Food, drink, and tobacco are the chief articles of commerce.

Forces, minks, raccoons are determined to deprive us of our food.

Food, drink, and tobacco are the chief articles of commerce.

Forces, minks, raccoons are determined to deprive us of our food.

Food, drink, and tobacco are the chief articles of commerce.

Forces, minks, raccoons are determined to deprive us of our food.

Food, drink, and tobacco are the chief articles of commerce.

Forces, minks, raccoons are determined to deprive us of our food.

Food, drink, and tobacco are the chief articles of commerce.

Forces, minks, raccoons are determined to deprive us of our food.

Food, drink, and tobacco are the chief articles of commerce.

Forces, minks, raccoons are determined to deprive us of our food.

Food, drink, and tobacco are the chief articles of commerce.

Forces, minks, raccoons are determined to deprive us of our food.

Food, drink, and tobacco are the chief articles of commerce.

Forces, minks, raccoons are determined to deprive us of our food.

Food, drink, and tobacco are the chief articles of commerce.

Forces, minks, raccoons are determined to deprive us of our food.

Food, drink, and tobacco are the chief articles of commerce.

NEWS OF THE DAY

GENERAL ITEMS.

Two captured "rebels" in attempting to escape from United States troops were shot in their tracks by command of Major Fountain.

—Robert W. Eaton, the murderer of James Keely, Jr., at Calais, Me., and who was released by a local justice on $500 bail, has fled to parts unknown.

—Five men were hanged in North Carolina, Georgia, Arkansas and Texas for capital crimes on Friday.

—The Democrats of Rhode Island have nominated Ziba O. Slocum for Lieutenant Governor, a gentleman whom the Republicans had selected for the same position on their ticket and had appointed a committee who were to solicit the use of his name.

—Herbert Spencer has withdrawn from the candidacy for the rectorship of St. Andrews's University.

—John G. Dale, agent of the Insurance Steamship Co., died suddenly in New York city on Friday.

—An outbreak is reported among the Crees Indians, and blood has already been shed in an encounter with their own party.

—From Indian Territory the killing of Indians is reported as the result of a bombing squad.

—A general call has been issued in all Irish societies in America to meet in general convention at Philadelphia on April 26.

—The milk producers along the Erie Railway continue to close their wells until they have kept up their coalition with the dairymen of New York. Large and enthusiastic meetings of farmers have been held, and the sentiment of all was not to give up on such of the ground already gained, and it was only after the arguments of the most prominent leaders that the farmers agreed to send a committee to confer with the New York milk dealers over a view of adjusting prices for March and the coming year. But little milk is shipped.

—The first mail route between points in the Territory of Alaska has been established.

—The government is making a determined effort to secure an indictment against General T. J. Brady and a former United States Senator for conspiracy to defraud.

—The Postmaster at Green Horn, N. Y., has been besieged by the vigilantes.

—The First Comptroller of the Treasury has decided that no appropriation was made by Congress for payment of rebate of the tax on tobacco.

—The remains of John Howard Payne arrived in New York from Tunis via Marseilles on Thursday. The body was taken at once to the Governor's room in the City Hall, where it lay in state and was visited by thousands.

—Many duels between students have occurred at Vienna.

—The Boers have invaded Jemben.

—A conflict has occurred on Chilean soil between Chileans and Argentine troops.

—Liverpool shipowners expect an increase of emigration this year.

—The police force of London is to be increased by five hundred men. Until then the military will protect the public houses.

—Two barrels of powder have been found in the vicinity of the large gunpowder works at King's Cross, London.

—Lady Florence Dixie says that she who attacked her with a knife

in the port of Cork, Ireland, was the凶犯 of the post's birth, the final torment who took place with appropriate circumstantial.

—In the New Jersey Home of Asylum a resolution was adopted authorizing the Speaker to appoint a special committee to investigate the accounts of the State Comptroller, State Treasurer, Secretary of State and other officials, the committee to sit during recess and report to the next Legislature.

—Oscillation on the part of a coal miner in the Pucker Colliery, Pa., led to an explosion of fire-damp and severe injuries to six men.

—After a four hours session the Court's Jury in the case of George W. Cushing, who shot and killed his captain in New York, returned a verdict that the shot which killed William H. Haworth was fired under great provocation.

—The performing of a convert in the Liverpool Building Mills before the public may apply to incite its contempt as the surmounting of eighteen men by the flying squad metal.

—Captain Leiman, who was to have been married at Middlebury, N. Y., Wednesday, shot himself on Tuesday night because he had failed in his efforts to borrow money. He will probably die.

—Dansen Dolan, ninety-eight years old, was found dead with a rope around his neck in his burned house near Dyer's Station, Ohio.

—At an auction sale in Canastota, N. Y., a carriage in which Lafayette rode during his last visit to this country was sold for $50.

—Secretary Chandler has directed that eight hours be regarded as a working day for all employees in the government yards until further notice.

—Ex-Governor Sprague has been informed of the people's candidate for Governor of Rhode Island by the Democratic Committee.

—The bill requiring electric wires to be put under ground was passed in the New York Senate.

—The bill to pension aged teachers in New York City schools passed the New York Senate.

—A bill providing that savings bank deposits unclaimed during twenty years shall be advertised was passed in the New York Senate.

—The President on Tuesday ordered the suspension of Judge Everts J. Cooper, Associate Justice of the Territory of Montana, against whom charges of drunkenness and gambling have been preferred.

—Governor Lidster, of New Jersey, has granted James Tregowen a respite until April 16; he was to have been hanged Wednesday.

—Two men were hanged near Helena, Mont., by a vigilance committee for alleged insubordination.

—The milk producers on the line of the Erie Railroad will send more milk to New York than ever before, and will agree to pay three and one-half cents per quart for the pure article. Mountain milk is being spilt by the firm who will not ship.

—In the County of Dorchester, Que., three children were burned to death through the house taking fire in the absence of their parents.

—Indians are at work all along the New Jersey coast. A conversation was overheard between three of them in which a plan was laid to destroy Anthony Park. They appeared at the place as strangers and did not carry out their designs, and several witnesses permitted them to escape.

—A Chinese jury has established the fact that the two men named Jacob and the two women named Anna, who were discovered recently in the ruins of their home at East Hartford, Conn., had been murdered, and the house set on fire to conceal the crime.

—The Mallory fire in New Haven, has not yet been settled. Thirty insurance companies have been sued on their policies for the amount of the loss which the company refuses to pay.

—At Watertown, Mass., on Sunday, a woman was found hanging with a rope while standing in her own house doorway. The murderer escaped.

—The New York State Board of Health discovered that out of 129 samples of food 69 were adulterated, and that of 75 samples of drugs 22 were adulterated.

—Three men were fatally injured by a fall while in Indianapolis, Ind.

—The entire business portion of the Town of Forest City, California, was destroyed by fire on Saturday.

—A railroad collision is reported from Tennessee in which several persons are said to be injured.

—An entire family at Hamilton, Ont., were overcome by gas from a self-sealing coal stove and two of them are dead.

—Restorative measures are likely to follow on the part of this Government, the extension of American gold products from Germany.

—Lieutenant Harber has been authorized to continue the search for Lieutenant and Chipp and his party during the coming summer.

—WASHINGTON NOTES.

—The State Department, in Washington, is reticent touching the report that the British government had remunerated us regarding the utterances of certain Irish-American citizens since the dynamite explosion in London. Minister West, however, says that the relations between the two countries were never more cordial than they are at present.

—In response to inquiries by a book presented the Comptroller of the Currency, he replied in a letter that he does not think there will be any great reduction of national bank circulation during the present year.

—POSSUMS.

—The inhabitants of the towns in Eastern Roumania have risen against the importation of foreign woven thread, and several depots containing such thread have been pillaged and burned.

—The eruption of Mount Etna is increasing in violence. A new crater has opened. The lava threatens to overwhelm Nicolosi and other villages.

—Nugent and the other members of the Armagh Assassination Society have been convicted.

—Henry Kocherl urges France to support "the revolt in Ireland."

—Captain Cary, who commanded the skirmishing party of English soldiers who were with Prince Napoleon when he was killed in滑铁卢, is dead.

—French troops have captured Bamako, situated beyond the Niger.

—All the Servian bishops have resigned.

—The Cox has received letters threatening him with death.

—Many duels between students have occurred at Vienna.

—The Boers have invaded Jemben.

—A conflict has occurred on Chilean soil between Chileans and Argentine troops.

—Liverpool shipowners expect an increase of emigration this year.

—The police force of London is to be increased by five hundred men. Until then the military will protect the public houses.

—Two barrels of powder have been found in the vicinity of the large gunpowder works at King's Cross, London.

—Lady Florence Dixie says that she who attacked her with a knife

in the port of Cork, Ireland, was the凶犯 of the post's birth, the final torment who took place with appropriate circumstantial.

—In the New Jersey Home of Asylum a resolution was adopted authorizing the Speaker to appoint a special committee to investigate the accounts of the State Comptroller, State Treasurer, Secretary of State and other officials, the committee to sit during recess and report to the next Legislature.

—The Postmaster at Green Horn, N. Y., has been besieged by the vigilantes.

—The First Comptroller of the Treasury has decided that no appropriation was made by Congress for payment of the tax on tobacco.

—The remains of John Howard Payne arrived in New York from Tunis via Marseilles on Thursday. The body was taken at once to the Governor's room in the City Hall, where it lay in state and was visited by thousands.

—Many duels between students have occurred at Vienna.

—The Boers have invaded Jemben.

—A conflict has occurred on Chilean soil between Chileans and Argentine troops.

—Liverpool shipowners expect an increase of emigration this year.

—The police force of London is to be increased by five hundred men. Until then the military will protect the public houses.

—Two barrels of powder have been found in the vicinity of the large gunpowder works at King's Cross, London.

—Lady Florence Dixie says that she who attacked her with a knife

in the port of Cork, Ireland, was the凶犯 of the post's birth, the final torment who took place with appropriate circumstantial.

—In the New Jersey Home of Asylum a resolution was adopted authorizing the Speaker to appoint a special committee to investigate the accounts of the State Comptroller, State Treasurer, Secretary of State and other officials, the committee to sit during recess and report to the next Legislature.

—The Postmaster at Green Horn, N. Y., has been besieged by the vigilantes.

—The First Comptroller of the Treasury has decided that no appropriation was made by Congress for payment of the tax on tobacco.

—The remains of John Howard Payne arrived in New York from Tunis via Marseilles on Thursday. The body was taken at once to the Governor's room in the City Hall, where it lay in state and was visited by thousands.

—Many duels between students have occurred at Vienna.

—The Boers have invaded Jemben.

—A conflict has occurred on Chilean soil between Chileans and Argentine troops.

—Liverpool shipowners expect an increase of emigration this year.

—The police force of London is to be increased by five hundred men. Until then the military will protect the public houses.

—Two barrels of powder have been found in the vicinity of the large gunpowder works at King's Cross, London.

—Lady Florence Dixie says that she who attacked her with a knife

in the port of Cork, Ireland, was the凶犯 of the post's birth, the final torment who took place with appropriate circumstantial.

—In the New Jersey Home of Asylum a resolution was adopted authorizing the Speaker to appoint a special committee to investigate the accounts of the State Comptroller, State Treasurer, Secretary of State and other officials, the committee to sit during recess and report to the next Legislature.

—The Postmaster at Green Horn, N. Y., has been besieged by the vigilantes.

—The First Comptroller of the Treasury has decided that no appropriation was made by Congress for payment of the tax on tobacco.

—The remains of John Howard Payne arrived in New York from Tunis via Marseilles on Thursday. The body was taken at once to the Governor's room in the City Hall, where it lay in state and was visited by thousands.

—Many duels between students have occurred at Vienna.

—The Boers have invaded Jemben.

—A conflict has occurred on Chilean soil between Chileans and Argentine troops.

—Liverpool shipowners expect an increase of emigration this year.

—The police force of London is to be increased by five hundred men. Until then the military will protect the public houses.

—Two barrels of powder have been found in the vicinity of the large gunpowder works at King's Cross, London.

—Lady Florence Dixie says that she who attacked her with a knife

in the port of Cork, Ireland, was the凶犯 of the post's birth, the final torment who took place with appropriate circumstantial.

—In the New Jersey Home of Asylum a resolution was adopted authorizing the Speaker to appoint a special committee to investigate the accounts of the State Comptroller, State Treasurer, Secretary of State and other officials, the committee to sit during recess and report to the next Legislature.

—The Postmaster at Green Horn, N. Y., has been besieged by the vigilantes.

—The First Comptroller of the Treasury has decided that no appropriation was made by Congress for payment of the tax on tobacco.

—The remains of John Howard Payne arrived in New York from Tunis via Marseilles on Thursday. The body was taken at once to the Governor's room in the City Hall, where it lay in state and was visited by thousands.

—Many duels between students have occurred at Vienna.

—The Boers have invaded Jemben.

—A conflict has occurred on Chilean soil between Chileans and Argentine troops.

—Liverpool shipowners expect an increase of emigration this year.

—The police force of London is to be increased by five hundred men. Until then the military will protect the public houses.

—Two barrels of powder have been found in the vicinity of the large gunpowder works at King's Cross, London.

—Lady Florence Dixie says that she who attacked her with a knife

in the port of Cork, Ireland, was the凶犯 of the post's birth, the final torment who took place with appropriate circumstantial.

—In the New Jersey Home of Asylum a resolution was adopted authorizing the Speaker to appoint a special committee to investigate the accounts of the State Comptroller, State Treasurer, Secretary of State and other officials, the committee to sit during recess and report to the next Legislature.

—The Postmaster at Green Horn, N. Y., has been besieged by the vigilantes.

—The First Comptroller of the Treasury has decided that no appropriation was made by Congress for payment of the tax on tobacco.

—The remains of John Howard Payne arrived in New York from Tunis via Marseilles on Thursday. The body was taken at once to the Governor's room in the City Hall, where it lay in state and was visited by thousands.

—Many duels between students have occurred at Vienna.

—The Boers have invaded Jemben.

—A conflict has occurred on Chilean soil between Chileans and Argentine troops.

—Liverpool shipowners expect an increase of emigration this year.

—The police force of London is to be increased by five hundred men. Until then the military will protect the public houses.

—Two barrels of powder have been found in the vicinity of the large gunpowder works at King's Cross, London.

—Lady Florence Dixie says that she who attacked her with a knife

in the port of Cork, Ireland, was the凶犯 of the post's birth, the final torment who took place with appropriate circumstantial.

—In the New Jersey Home of Asylum a resolution was adopted authorizing the Speaker to appoint a special committee to investigate the accounts of the State Comptroller, State Treasurer, Secretary of State and other officials, the committee to sit during recess and report to the next Legislature.

—The Postmaster at Green Horn, N. Y., has been besieged by the vigilantes.

—The First Comptroller of the Treasury has decided that no appropriation was made by Congress for payment of the tax on tobacco.

—The remains of John Howard Payne arrived in New York from Tunis via Marseilles on Thursday. The body was taken at once to the Governor's room in the City Hall, where it lay in state and was visited by thousands.

—Many duels between students have occurred at Vienna.

—The Boers have invaded Jemben.

&lt;p